Notice of Court Order to Liquidate

Michigan Health Maintenance Organization Plans, Inc. (in Liquidation) (Formerly OmniCare Health Plan in Rehabilitation)

On October 28, 2004, Michigan Health Maintenance Organization Plans, Inc. (formerly OmniCare Health Plan in Rehabilitation), referred to as Michigan HMO Plan, was placed into liquidation by the Honorable Judge Giddings in Ingham County Circuit Court (File No. 98-88265-CR). The Judge's Order appointed Linda A. Watters, Commissioner of Financial and Insurance Services, State of Michigan as Liquidator and James E. Gerber as Special Deputy Liquidator for the Michigan HMO Plans.

The reason for the Order of Liquidation was that Michigan HMO Plan was unable to qualify for a new Medicaid contract. As a result, Michigan HMO Plan entered into an agreement to sell its Medicaid membership to Coventry Health of Michigan ("Coventry"). The Medicaid members were transferred to Coventry on October 1, 2004. As part of the purchase agreement, Coventry Health of Michigan also purchased the right to use OmniCare Health Plan's name. Accordingly, OmniCare Health Plan in Rehabilitation changed its name to Michigan Health Maintenance Organization Plans, Inc. effective October 1, 2004.

All enrollee and subscriber contracts for the Michigan HMO Plan were terminated effective midnight, September 30, 2004. Michigan HMO Plan is responsible for administering the liquidation.
